

Disabilities

Individuals with a documented disability may request reasonable academic accommodations. Individuals that would like to request reasonable academic accommodations should contact the Basic Training Evaluation Section Supervisor at 521 Lancaster Road, Schwendeman Building or call (859) 622-8127. Those wishing reasonable academic accommodations are required to produce written documentation of their disability as well as a written request of what accommodations will be needed prior to any written examination.