DOCJT HOSTS CARNIVAL TO BENEFIT MARCH OF DIMES

The annual March of Dimes campaign is underway, and the employees at the Department of Criminal Justice Training are holding a carnival to benefit the fundraiser. The carnival, complete with games, prizes and a clown, will be from 4:30 to 6 p.m. Friday, April 16 in the Stratton Gym.

Booths include a bean bag toss, face painting, dart throw, cake walk, fish pond, octopus ring toss, pink flamingo ring toss, lollipop tree, putt-putt, bingo, pie toss, and toss across.

Tickets are three for $1, and games are one ticket each.

The March of Dimes funds research dedicated to understanding and preventing the cause of birth defects. The Department of Criminal Justice Training has already raised more than $1,500 for the organization this year.
